Handel's 'Messiah' To Be Presented December 7

The Fine Arts Center Chorus and Orchestra will perform Handel's "Messiah", Parts I and II, Sunday afternoon, December 7 at 3 p.m. in E. C. Glass Auditorium with George Clark conducting.

Soloists will be Rosemary Spillman, soprano; William Hodges, tenor; Paula Hanucha, alto; and Robert Ellinwood, bass.

Lusk Speaks On "Christmas Long a Ago"

The warmth and joy of Christmas caroling presented by Mrs. Walter Ferrell and her guests will beard the Yuletide Season for the members of the Woman's Club on Monday, December 1, at 7:30 p.m. at "Charmos", the home of Mr. and Mrs. Webster Babcock.

The traditional spirit of "Christmas Long Ago" will mingle with bicentennial thoughts when Gilbert Lusk, Superintendent of the Appomattox Historical Park, speaks on the Christmas Treasures of Our American Heritage.

Each member is requested to bring a gift for the boys at Patrick Henry Boys' Home.

The blending of the Christmas spirit of yesterday and today will welcome new members in to the club.

'Love In A Village' Auditions Set

KEYSVILLE - Try-outs for the Daniel Players' Bi-Centennial play, "Love in a Village" are set for December 3 and 4 at 7:30 p.m. on the John H. Daniel Campus of SVCC.

"Love in a Village" by Isaac Bickerstaff was first performed in London's Convent Garden in 1762. It shortly came to the American Colonies and played for many yeas up and down the Atlantic Seaboard. It was a great favorite in Williamsburg where undoubtedly Jefferson, Washington, Henry and others saw it.

"Love in a Village" is a merry romp of mistaken identities, lost lovers, and swaggering squires.

The cast requires four females & six males, and all roles will be filled from the try-outs. Male parts are for four young men & two older; female parts are for three young ladies & one older woman a delightful comedy part.

Dudley Sauve, fresh from his triumph in "A Man for All Seasons", will direct.

"Love in a Village" will run two week ends in January.
